

Lunchbox Challenge Contest

Terms and Conditions

Woodfibre LNG's Lunchbox Challenge contest is open to all Squamish-area construction and trades workers employed by a local Squamish business. We will be randomly selecting winners and will buy lunch for them and their teams until 100 lunches have been given away.

This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed, administered by or associated with Facebook.

Woodfibre LNG is proud to support construction and trades workers as part of BCCA's Construction Month 2021.

Woodfibre LNG is accepting contest entries for the Lunchbox Challenge contest until April 15, 2020. Contest winners will be notified if they have been successful by April 19.

Eligibility Criteria

Contest entrants must actively work as a construction or trades worker in Squamish for a locally owned business in April 2021. Entrants must both comment on the Facebook or Instagram post for the contest as well as subscribe to the Woodfibre LNG email newsletter to complete their contest entry.

How to Enter

1. Comment on the contest post pinned to the top of our Facebook or Instagram page between April 1 – 15 explaining why you and your team deserve lunch. Include the number of people on your team.
2. Sign up to our email newsletter here. You may unsubscribe at any time.
